

RICHFIELD NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY # PROCEDURE FOR REVIEW AND DISMISSAL OF MEMBERS

Members of the National Honor Society may be dismissed for failure to maintain standards of scholarship, leadership, character or service that were used as the basis of their selection. When questions are raised regarding these standards, the advisor of the National Honor Society will call a meeting of the NHS Faculty Council. The purpose of the meeting would be to review pertinent information and to question those parties who may have information about the failure to maintain National Honor Society standards. The student in question may attend the hearing and present information. He/she may be accompanied by parents, but representation by legal counsel is not appropriate. Following the taking of evidence, the Faculty Council will be sequestered and reach a decision regarding dismissal of the student from the National Honor Society.

The decision of the Faculty Council may be appealed to the building principal. In such cases the decision of the building principal will be final. The National Council and the National Association of Secondary School Principals will hear no appeals in dismissal cases.
